Moving On-Campus and Not Sure What to Bring?

Moving in is an exciting part of being a college student but it can also cause anxiety. To ease the transition, here is a list of some items you'll want to consider bringing to campus to make an easy transition.

What you should bring:

- Extra-long twin sheets (80x30 and 75x38½)
- Pillows, comforter, blankets
- Towels, washcloths and bathrobe
- Shower tote, caddy, and shower shoes
- Toiletries (soap, shampoo, toothbrush, etc.)
- Clothes and hangers
- Cell phone
- Surge Protector
- Laundry basket, detergent and fabric softener
- School supplies and backpack
- Alarm clock

What you may want to bring (optional items):

- Small safe to store valuable items
- Computer/laptop and printer – there are various labs on campus
- Iron and ironing board
- Posters and poster putty
- Camera
- Fan and/or humidifier
- Bike and U-lock
- Sports equipment: skis, snowboard, etc.
- Storage bins, small organizers
- Full length mirrors (however, these cannot be hung on the walls or doors)
- Non-perishable food items
- Coffee maker

Discuss with your roommate(s) before bringing:

- Refrigerator and microwave
- TV, DVD player, video game consoles
- Carpet/rugs
- Couch
- Futon
- Reclining chairs

Please do not bring:

- Pets, with the exception of fish (with a limit of 25-gallon tanks)
- Waterbeds or mattress from home
• Drapes for the windows
• Hot plates or cooking items that have an open heating element
• Halogen or torchiere-style lamps
• Unapproved materials for hanging, including Scotch, duct, electrical or masking tape, tacks, and nails; anything that might damage walls
• Candles and incense
• Valuable possessions you don’t really need
• Alcohol/Drug paraphernalia
• Extension cords
